

Name :

Grade : 5

Date :

Subject : English

Topic : The Stone Cutter, Discursive Passage

Learning

Assessment:

Concept understanding	EP	PR	EX	Parent Feedback: <input type="checkbox"/> Independent <input type="checkbox"/> Dependent	Time taken:
Application of knowledge	EP	PR	EX		Parent signature:
Critical thinking/Critical writing	EP	PR	EX
Time Given: 0 hrs 20 mins
To improve:

Selfwork- 77

Q1. Read the passage and answer the following questions

. The Birthday Present

One Monday, Amit is playing in the garden. He sees his grandmother. His grandmother has a book. She is rea

"Grandma! Grandma!" says Amit.

"Next Sunday is Mama's birthday!

I don't have anything to give her as a present.

Can we surprise Mama with a party?"

"That is a wonderful idea, Amit!" says Grandma.

"Mama always gives me a present on my birthday," says Amit. "What present can I give Mama?"

"I don't know," says Grandma. "But don't worry. We can make some chocolates. Your Mama like chocola chocolate.

On Tuesday, Amit thinks about Mama's present. Amit talks to Papa about Mama's birthday party.

"What present can I give Mama?" asks Amit.

Your Mama knows," says Papa. "But don't worry. I can play my guitar. Your Mama enjoys it."

On Wednesday, Amit thinks about Mama's present again. He goes to invite Miss Mita to Mama's birthday part

Miss Mita bakes wonderful cakes.

"What present can I give Mama?" asks Amit.

"I don't know," says Miss Mita.

"But don't worry. I can bake a cake for your mother."

On Thursday, Amit again thinks about Mama's present. He goes to talk to his friend Hina about it.

"What present can I give Mama?" asks Amit.

"I don't know," says Hina. "But don't worry. We can make paper flowers to decorate the room. Your Mama decorated the room."

On Friday, Amit thinks about Mama's present again. So, he goes to speak to Grandpa.

"What present can I give Mama?" asks Amit.

"I don't know," says Grandpa. "But don't worry. I have a book. I can give her that."

On Saturday, Amit still thinks about his present for Mama. But Amit has many things to do. He helps in getting everyone ready to give Mama a surprise.

On Sunday, everyone comes to the party. Mama is very surprised. Papa plays his guitar.

Grandma's chocolates taste wonderful. All enjoy themselves.

Everyone looks happy.

But Amit is sad.

"Amit, what is the matter? Why are you sad?" asks Mama.

"I do not know what to give you on your birthday, Mama."

"Oh, Amit," says Mama, "this party is the best present! No, the second best."

Second best?" asks Amit.

"Yes, the best present of all is having my family and friends here with me. That is the most wonderful part of it. Then, Mama gives Amit a big hug.

Amit is happy now.

1. Amit wants to give his Mama a _____.

- a. present b. sweet

2. Grandma and Amit _____.

- a. buy chocolates b. make chocolates

3. To whom does Amit talk on Tuesday?

4. Name two things that Amit's Mama likes.

5. Which part of the party does Amit's Mama say is the most wonderful?

6. Why does Amit want to give his Mama a present?

7. Why does Amit speak to his Grandpa?

QII. Read Lesson-9 “The Stone Cutter” and answer the following questions:

1. Write the synonym for the given word: ‘dwelt’ - _____

2. Write the antonym for the given word: ‘fancy’ - _____

3. Write the character which you liked the most in the lesson.

4. Write the event which you liked the most in the lesson.

5. Pick and write any 5 new words from the lesson.
